

The Advisement Center wants you to...

JOIN THE EXCITEMENT

Become part of the University of Wisconsin-Stout's Devil's Advocate Mentoring Program and learn the ropes from an upperclassman in your major this semester!

You will make friends from your major, learn about opportunities at Stout and have fun while meeting new and exciting people.

How to become a Mentee? Follow these easy steps...

1. Submit an application to the Advisement Center by the first week of classes. Applications can be picked up at the Advisement Center (11 Bowman Hall), on-line www.uwstout.edu/advisement or from your First-Year Advisor.
2. Attend a group meeting where you will be introduced to your mentor and learn more about what the program is all about. The meeting will be held the first two weeks of classes. The date and time will be announced in early August.
