16th Annual Outstanding Women of Color in Education Award Announcement

The UW System Women’s Studies Consortium, and the Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion, wish to publicly recognize the contributions that women of color have made to the UW System, and in particular, to diversity and women’s studies.

UW-Stout is seeking nominations for this recognition:

Nominations due November 15, 2010

- Nominees may be a faculty, staff, student or active community member, either self-nominated or nominated by another.

- Applications should include a one-page summary of the nominee’s contributions to diversity and women’s studies as they address some or all of the following criteria:
  - Work in the areas of women’s studies scholarship and activism, especially serving to improve the status and climate for women, particularly women of color.
  - Advocacy for women, particularly women of color.
  - Ability to rally diverse forces together to advance the agenda of women, particularly that of women of color.
  - Efforts to create positive changes at your institutional level, i.e., curriculum development and infusion, receiving grants, and mentoring women.
  - Activities demonstrating an understanding of the interplay of family and community and culture in the lives of women of color.

- Submit nominations electronically to Janice Coker (cokerj@uwstout.edu), Associate Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs, by November 15, 2010.

- UW-Stout’s selected honoree will be invited to a formal recognition ceremony in Madison on Saturday, March 26, 2011.
