1. State the purpose of the class hour you observed:

2. Describe the teaching techniques and the content of the class hour you observed:

3. Explain whether the class meeting was appropriate to the course’s overall purpose.

4. Did the instructor display an understanding of the subject? Please explain.

5. Did the students understand the material presented?

6. Did the instructor display an organized approach? Please Explain.

7. Did the instructor involve the students in class activities?

8. Describe the rapport between the instructor and the students.

9. What areas of particular strength did you observe?
10. What areas for possible improvement did you observe?

11. Did you observe any serious problem or deficiency?

12. Comment on whether the approach and level of the observed instruction was appropriate for the composition/literature or philosophy program at Stout.