In Brief: Break-in at sorority house

MENOMONIE — A member of the UW-Stout Delta Zeta Beta sorority returned to the sorority house Sunday to find it had been burglarized.

The back door of the house, 1003 Ninth St. E., was kicked in, and some ceremonial sorority items were taken, according to Menomonie police reports.

A scroll, two ceremonial lamps and a ceremonial bodkin, which looks like a letter opener, were missing. The items were valued at $130, the same amount as damage estimates for the door.

The break-in was reported at 8:47 p.m.
