Several area high school students have been offered $1,000 Polytechnic Scholarships at UW-Stout. The students will receive the scholarships if they rank in the top 50 percent of their class and have a composite ACT score of 22.

Following are some of the students selected for the scholarship, their high school and tentative major:

Maygan Mitchell, Blair-Taylor High School, applied social science.

Anna Kopp, Whitehall High School, undecided.

Sarah Nuzum, Alma High School, food systems and technology.

Sophia Reidt, Alma High School, pre-early childhood education.

Aaron Koerner, Colby High School, construction.

Matt Langreck, Colby High School, engineering technology.

Brandon Wolf, Colby High School, information technology management.

Collin Brunner, Neillsville High School, manufacturing engineering.

Kendra Pfeiffer, Neillsville High School, undecided.

Ryan Decamp, Prescott High School, engineering technology.

Anne Weinfurtner, Prescott High School, packaging.

Chad Bahnub, Black River Falls High School, business administration.

Mitchell Johnson, Altoona High School, computer engineering.

Kayla Robinson, Altoona High School, vocational rehabilitation.
Kori Klaustermeier, Boyceville High School, hotel restaurant and tourism.

Jade Roinila, Menomonie High School, business administration.

Quinn Roinila, Menomonie High School, undecided.

Gregory Christoffel, Colfax High School, applied science.

Hayden Fehr, Colfax High School, applied science.

Andrew Johnson, Menomonie High School, food systems and technology.

Bailey Beyer, Elmwood High School, undecided.

Mitchell Erickson, Plum City High School, packaging.

Kate Engen, Mondovi High School, art.

Brianna Peterson, Mondovi High School, psychology.

Parker Stamm, Mondovi High School, undecided.

Jade Austin, Eleva-Strum High School, psychology.

Tairyn Velie, Osseo-Fairchild High School, art.

Lawton Radle, Plum City High School, applied science.

Kayla White, Plum City High School, undecided.

Tyler Hunter, Spring Valley High School, pre-special education.