Mysterious Menomonie topic of museum speaker

By Pamela Powers
Menomonie News Bureau

Researcher Chad Lewis will share information on mysterious Menomonie and some of the most bizarre locations in Dunn County during a presentation at the Rassbach Heritage Museum Sunday, June 17 at 1:30 p.m.

Some of the cases he will talk about are haunted theaters, mysterious gnomes, UFO sightings, and more. His presentation will include witness drawings, eyewitness testimony, photos and sound clips. He will give to directions to some areas where paranormal activity allegedly has occurred.

The event is free and open to all ages. Lewis also hopes to collect any stories people may have experienced or heard of strange or unusual occurrences

The museum is located at 1820 Wakanda St. N.W., in Menomonie’s Wakanda Park.

Lewis is an author, researcher and lecturer on topics of the strange and unusual. He holds a Master's of Science degree in psychology from the University of Wisconsin-Stout. Chad has trekked across the world in search of unique and bizarre stories and history.

Lewis has been featured on the Discovery Channel’s “A Haunting,” ABC’s “World’s Scariest Places,” and hundreds of radio interviews, TV appearances, and newspaper articles. He is the author of the Hidden Headlines series and also the co-author of the Road Guide to Haunted Locations book series.

For more information on Lewis and his books visit the websites www.chadlewisresearch.com and www.unexplainedresearch.com.