Leader Telegram staff

Ambassadors: Savannah Hutchinson of Chippewa Falls and Troy Melichar of Cumberland are two UW-Stout students who attended the American Resort Development Association World Conference as student ambassadors in Las Vegas.

The two students from the School of Hospitality Leadership assisted the association by helping with the golf outing, registration, distribution of handouts, educational sessions and as aides.

In exchange for their assistance, they were able to attend educational and general sessions.