Around Town: Scholarships

Six area students were awarded the College of Education, Health and Human Sciences Potential for Excellence Scholarship at the Celebration of Teaching and Learning event at UW-Stout.

The $1,000 scholarship, awarded for the 2015-16 school year, was established to enhance the goal of recruiting and retaining high achieving and diverse students.

The recipients were selected by a committee based on essay responses, program directors or other recommended input and evidence of scholarly achievement.

Following are the area recipients and their majors:

• Emily Kruger, Cameron, human development and family studies.
• Melissa Fowler, Cumberland, human development and family studies.
• Katherine Fochs, Eau Claire, human development and family studies.
• Kelly Mendalski, Menomonie, clinical mental health counseling.
• Laura Reisinger, Menomonie, career and technical education doctoral program.
• Donna Thibado, Menomonie, vocational rehabilitation.
