Academic Awards: Scholarships

Seven area UW-Stout students have been awarded scholarships through a National Science Foundation grant for the 2012-13 school year.

Following are the recipients, who are all applied science majors:

Bloomer: Anna Winfield.

Eau Claire: Jeffrey Jackson.

Hudson: Adam Cameron, Amanda Smith.

Knapp: Ryan Veith.

Menomonie: Andrea Krueger.

Rice Lake: Jordan Bauer.

The scholarships are part of a $567,000 National Science Foundation S-STEM grant awarded in 2009 to Kitrina Carlson and Krista James from the biology department at UW-Stout.

S-STEM stands for Scholarships in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics.

Other scholarships were awarded in 2010 and 2011 as part of the same grant.

Scholarship winners must be enrolled full time, show financial need and meet other requirements.
