Around Town: Scholarships

Three area new graduate students at UW-Stout were awarded $2,000 scholarships for the 2014-15 school year.

The students will receive $1,000 for the fall semester and the remaining $1,000 for the spring semester, if they continue to be enrolled for at least six graduate credits and have maintained a grade point average of at least 3.0.

The scholarships are funded by the University Scholarship Committee.

Following are the recipients and their majors:

- Russell Chamberlain, Eau Claire, industrial and applied mathematics.

- John Bensend, Menomonie, operation and supply management.

- Heidi Foster, New Richmond, information and communication technologies.
