Wisconsin Association for Career and Technical Education Conference
April 10th & 11th, 2014 • Middleton, Wisconsin

This is a great opportunity to network with professionals and learn current trends in CTE! For more information visit: www.wacteonline.org

Four UW-Stout CTE faculty recognized by the local Stout Community Association for CTE.

The four, who qualified for awards at the state level, are: Urs Haltinner, Outstanding Instructor, for demonstrating innovative and effective instruction that exemplifies quality career and technical education; Diane Klemme, Outstanding Member - Community Involvement, for exceptional leadership in programs and activities that engage others in community service; Carol Mooney, for contributing more than 25 years of dedicated service to career and technical education in Wisconsin; and Matt Simoneau, New Instructor, for making significant contributions to career and technical education as a new instructor.

Ashley I. Johnson: BSCTET Graduate Assistant

Hello everyone! I want to take this opportunity to introduce myself (if I haven’t already contacted you). I have been assisting Matt Simoneau since last Fall, and will continue on through Fall 2014. I am working towards my certification in School Counseling here at UW-Stout. I’m looking forward to working with you all!
