B.S. Vocational Rehabilitation
Recreational Rehabilitation Concentration

This concentration provides students with entry-level job skills for recreation and sports related rehabilitation positions.

Recreational Rehabilitation Concentration Objectives:

1. Understand the role of recreation/leisure in avocational pursuits of people who have disabilities.
2. Understand the importance of promoting health and wellness as part of the overall development of an individual rehabilitation plan.
3. Apply the mechanical principles of body movement to the development of recreational activities that may be enjoyed by individuals with various disabilities.
4. Implement recreational services in one or more community recreational programs that integrate individuals or groups of persons with disabilities.
5. Understand the educational, sociological, and/or physiological base of the recreative use of leisure in contemporary society.