The UW-Stout Residential Honors Scholarship is a merit scholarship, renewable for two years, currently valued at $3200/year. It is awarded to first year students on the basis of their academic and co-curricular performance in high school and renewable based on performance in the first year of college. Selection criteria includes high school academic performance, co-curricular performance and written communication skills. Renewal is based upon successful completion of Honors Program requirements, maintaining a 3.0 cumulative GPA and maintaining eligibility to live on-campus. Residential Honors Scholarship recipients are required to live in an UW-Stout residence hall and purchase a meal plan.
