

Donald C. Austrum

Education

University of Wisconsin-River Falls
Bachelor of Science-Art Education K-12: 1972

University of Wisconsin-Superior
Graduate courses in studio art: 1973-1977

Teaching Experience

Boyceville Community Schools
Art educator K-12: 1972-2007
Retired: June 2007

Related Teaching Experience

West Central Education Association - Boyceville
Head negotiator: 1990s

Boyceville Education Scholarship Trustee (BEST)
Board member: 1990s - present

Awards / Achievements

Greater Menomonie Area Chamber of Commerce
“Outstanding Teacher of the Year: 1994”
“Outstanding Teacher of the Year: 1996”
“Outstanding Teacher of the Year: 2005”

National Publications (articles authored)

Arts and Activities: June 1993, “Circus Parade Revival”

School arts: October 1998, “Thursday and Friday Afternoons on the Banks of Tiffany Creek: A re-creation of Seurat’s La Grande Jatte”

School Arts: May/June 2003, “Artful Installations”