Going Global

One of the leading providers of career and employment resources!

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-STOUT

GETTING STARTED

ː Log into your Stout CareerLink account.
  ː If you need to create your Stout CareerLink account, view the tutorial here: http://www.uwstout.edu/careers/upload/stu_stout_careerlink_access.pdf

ː Move your cursor over “Additional Services” in the top navigation bar and select “Going Global” from the drop-down menu.

黼 A new window will open, giving you access to a wide variety of resources and professional advice regarding a career opportunities in foreign countries.

COUNTRY CAREER GUIDES

黼 To search for career and employment resources around the world, click “Country Career Guides” at the top of the home page.

黼 To browse through a country guide, click on the country you would like to view.

黼 The guide will provide many links for job search resources, information on industry and employment trends, top companies, interviewing advice, resume guidelines, cultural advice, etc.

黼 To search for a specific subject, you may use the “Guide Search” box at the bottom of the page.
  ː Enter search terms and then select a country. For better results, be specific with your terms.
To search for career and employment resources in the largest cities in North America, click “USA/Canada City Career Guides” on the home page.

To browse through a city guide, click on the city name you would like to view.

The guide will provide links for a city overview, cost of living, job search resources, information on industry and employment trends, top companies, interviewing advice, resume guidelines, etc.

To search for job openings and internship opportunities around the world, click “Job Postings and Internship Listings” in the middle of the home page.

Fill in any of the following sections for your search. Be sure to select the “Job Type” at the bottom of the form.

Click “Search.” It may take a few seconds before you can view your results.

To read more about the job description and application information, click the job title.

To quickly edit details of your search, you may select different options in the left sidebar. A new search will be conducted automatically.

To start a new search, click “Modify/Start New Search” at the bottom of the page.

For access for more than 400,000 company profiles, click the “Key Employer Directory” link near the bottom of the page.

Fill in any of the following sections for your search.

For better results, fill out as many fields as possible.

To view an employer profile, click the company name.

Phone numbers, e-mail and website links are provided if you would like to contact the company or find more information.