2018-2019 Faculty Research Stipends Application

CSII’s mission is to provide leadership on issues pertaining to civil liberty and related institutions (governmental, civic, business, social, scientific, religious, etc.) and innovations through scholarly inquiry, educational activities and community outreach. To promote our scholarly mission, CSII will award four $5,000 faculty research stipends during the 2018-2019 academic year.

Only tenured or tenure track faculty employed full time at institutions participating in the CSII campus network are eligible. Applicants are encouraged to contact the CSII Director about potential proposals.

Applications are accepted on a continuous basis. Send completed proposal with supporting documents to CSII Director as a Word or pdf attachment to email.

Proposals will be reviewed by outside experts.

In no more than four pages, proposals should:

1. The research question/s and objectives;
2. The significance and originality of the research;
3. The research methodology (framework, assumptions, orientation, etc.);
4. Plans for dissemination of research findings; and
5. Qualifications of the researcher/s to conduct and disseminate the research successfully.

A curriculum vita no longer than two pages should be provided.

Note: Since the stipend will be paid as income to the recipient, there may be subsequent income tax liability.

Within three months of completing the research, a brief report summarizing the research must be submitted to CSII. Stipend recipients should credit CSII financial support when disseminating stipend-based research. To help us track the success of the program, recipients are strongly encouraged to notify CSII of any publications or presentations resulting from CSII funded research.
