Proposed New UW-Stout Mission Statement

The University of Wisconsin – Stout prepares students for careers through applied learning and research, professional experiences, and collaborative partnerships to benefit a global society.

As Wisconsin’s Polytechnic University, we fulfill our mission through a curriculum that combines interdisciplinary knowledge and discipline-specific technical skills with critical thinking, creative problem-solving, communication, and social and ethical reasoning skills to better the human condition. We offer career-focused undergraduate and graduate programs for diverse students, in a variety of in-person, hybrid, and virtual modalities, organized around career clusters that include:

- science, technology, engineering and mathematics;
- art and design;
- business and management;
- education;
- social and behavioral sciences;
- information technology and communications; and
- health sciences and human services.

Current UW-Stout Mission Statement:

The University of Wisconsin-Stout is a career-focused, comprehensive polytechnic university where diverse students, faculty and staff integrate applied learning, scientific theory, humanistic understanding, creativity and research to solve real-world problems, grow the economy and serve a global society.

The University offers undergraduate and graduate programs leading to professional careers in industry, commerce, education and human services through the study of applied mathematics and science, art and design, business and management, social and behavioral sciences, education, family and consumer sciences, select engineering programs, applied technologies, select health studies, and technical communication.
